The Grayling and Roscommon Independents were both victorious over Bay City opponents in a basketball double header here last Saturday night.

Roscommon tripped the Bay City Aetna Cement team in the evening's opening game by a 47 to 21 score as Jim Rutledge, Earl Haight and Bob Meyers starred for Roscommon. Grayling in the evening's second contest took the measure of the Essexville Merchants of Bay City by a 72 to 58 count.

Ross Thompson with 20 points led the victors with Sandy Thompson, Ed Smith and Ed Chalker each adding 14 points to the winning tally. Chalker former Grayling High School athlete and now coach of Kalkaska High School put in his appearance on the floor for Grayling for the first time in many seasons. It is hoped that he will play several more games with the Grayling squad this season.

Both Grayling and Roscommon edged into an early lead from which neither Bay City outfit ever threatened the two victors.

This Saturday night, Grayling takes the floor against a highly touted Oilers team from Mt. Pleasant. A preliminary game is set for 7:30 with the Indies and Oilers taking the floor at about 9 P. M.

Michelson Memorial Church School Notes

Barbara June Eaton is a new member of the Nursery Class. In the second division, 32 attendance awards were distributed to cover records achieved in the fall quarter. A slide projector and screen have been presented to the church school in memory of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Schumann by their daughters. As soon as a library of slides and film strips has been selected and obtained, this equipment will be available to all the organizations of the church.

The staff meeting Monday evening was devoted largely to discussion of the missionary program of the church school, and to selection of specific missionary projects. It was decided to send the special missionary Thanksgiving offering to Lomecho, Chile, where a new Methodist church is being constructed. Inspired by the recent visit of the Rev. Walter Mason, superintendent of the agricultural high school at El Vergel, also in Chile, the staff voted to undertake the task of providing the school with a pure bred Guernsey heifer in order to establish a new and better breed of cattle in an area where only Holsteins are known at present. This is a project which may have a far-reaching effect on the economic development of that region, and it is hoped the project will capture the interest of all the organizations of the church.

Start Archery Class At Grayling High

A class in the art of archery has been instituted at Grayling High School and entered its second week with 12 students enrolled and a large waiting list of others who wish to take up bow and arrow target shooting.

The class is being instructed by Coach Bruce Smith with the aid two days each week of Frank Scott of the Bear Archery Company who is one of Michigan's top archers and who captured fourth place in the men's division of the National Archery meet last summer.

The size of the class is determined at this time by the lack of sufficient backdrops which must be hung behind the targets to stop arrows which do not hit the target in flight. The arrows traveling with great speed must be stopped before they hit the gym wall or they would do considerable damage to the wall. If and when more back drops can be installed the class will be enlarged. Coach Smith said.

An exhibition by the students studying archery will probably be staged at a later date, he added.

We are all sorry to hear one of Mary Ryans twin boys is in the Hospital at Grayling.

Mrs. Dorothy Meredith and Jennie Lee Jungman spent Monday afternoon in Gaylord. Dorothy says teeth pulling is sure tough.

Frank and Joan Madill spent the week end with their parents and other relatives in Frederic. Walter DeMotte of Grayling called on old customers in Frederic Friday and will soon be on the job again after his recent illness.

John Armstrong received a long letter from his son, Junior, who is in Korea. Junior wishes to thank the "Moms" of Frederic very kindly for the nice gifts, all the cards, letters, etc., received from them recently.

Mrs. Helen Kovach is in the Detroit hospital and we hope she has a speedy recovery.

The Frederic and Maple Forest Sportsmen's Club held a meeting Wednesday night at the Frederic hall. Plans were made for the future parties, lunch and refreshments served and a grand time had by all.

Bud Taylor of Frederic is now employed by McEvers Garage in Grayling. Don't worry about your hard bumps, let Bud do it.

Charles Horton and wife of Walled Lake spent a pleasant week end visiting relatives and friends in Frederic and attending the birthday party of his father, George Horton, Saturday night.

Very good reports are coming from the ice fishermen at Frederic. Each one has a much larger story to tell, but we have the proof of many of them.

Dick Lawrence and two friends of Elba spent Saturday and Sunday and Monday in Frederic at the Lawrence cabin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Barber and Mr. and Mrs. Al Roth from Ponlac were here over the week end to see their two grandsons and nephews, Dale Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Allen and Ronald Nelson, son of Mrs. Ethel Nelson, before the boys leave for service. Dale for Navy and Ronald for Air Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hines of Mt. Pleasant were week end visitors of the Elroy Barber family. Elroy Barber came home Friday night from his work in M. Pleasant.

Miss Mary Kruger of Owosso was here the past week end visiting friend Dale Allen.

Murray and Lowell Bindschate leave Wednesday for service in the Navy. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Bindschate.

Miss Edith Miller and Mr. Betty Pratt returned Monday night from the wedding in Lansing.

"Cut To The Bone"

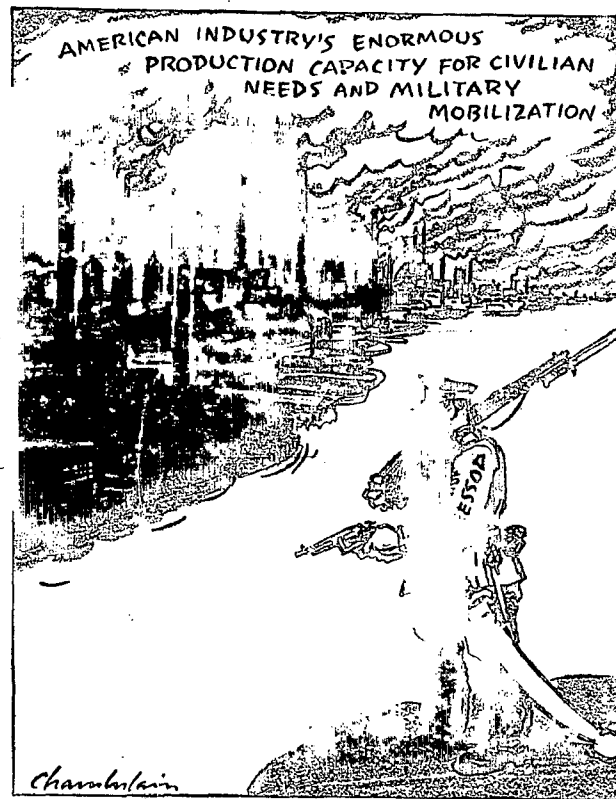

Chairman Cannon of the House Appropriations Committee recently stated that "all non-defense items in the Budget will be cut to the bone."

That represents an attitude which must be adopted by everyone in authority in the government if runaway inflation is to be retarded, much less prevented. It is an unfortunate fact that most of the top-level thinking on the problem of inflation has dealt with such dubious palliatives as ironclad controls throughout the economy. Relatively little of it has dealt with the real cause of the disease—of which one of the most important is unnecessary Federal spending.

A short time ago a program to curb inflation was proposed by 220 economists representing 27 of the nation's leading colleges and universities. Economists commonly disagree on many issues, but they see eye to eye on inflation. They called for elimination of all unnecessary government expenditures, for raising tax revenues faster than defense spending in order to create a cash surplus, and for more stringent credit restrictions. Their statement observed "Fiscal and credit measures are the only adequate primary defense against inflation, and can minimize the extent of direct government controls over wages, prices, production and distribution. . . . A prolonged decline in the purchasing power of the dollar would undermine the very foundations of our society, and an ever-spreading system of direct controls could jeopardize our system of free enterprise and free collective bargaining."

This is a time for putting first things first. Let government really show leadership in combating inflation by throwing overboard every proposed appropriation that does not directly serve a necessary, unavoidable purpose.

Spurred, no doubt, by the recent brutal murder of the pretty co-ed near Kalamazoo, one member of the Legislature has again

Value Your Health More Than Riches

Some folks think that fine clothes and fine, big houses are the most important things in life, but these things really don't mean too much if a person doesn't feel well enough to enjoy them.

But Herman, the service station man said you should have chains this winter.

That's stretching it a bit, but actually you can't over-emphasize SAFETY. Get your car ready for the season ahead. We're ready to help you... so drive in.

taken from the shelf and dusted off the age old capital punishment bill and a renewed attempt will be made to secure its passage. There will be many arguments for and against the bill and regardless of the final outcome there will still be murders committed in the state. If some could be prevented, the passage of the bill is worth while. Because of the brutality of the slaying, the citizens of Michigan have been aroused against the killers, and justly so. Newspapers daily carry accounts of the developments of the crime.

In striking contrast, only slight mention was made of the instant death of the father, mother and son of the Millersburg family in a collision on the highway near Pionering recently. They were among the finest and most respectable of our citizens.

A similar mishap has just occurred east of Lansing in which the driver of a car was seriously injured in a collision with another large truck and his car completely demolished. The engine of his car was found a hundred feet from the scene of the accident. Similar incidents and deaths occur almost daily on our highways, yet the feeling of the public is not aroused to the point of wanting to do something about it immediately. Life to all of our citizens is equally dear and the safety of all of our citizens should be carefully guarded.

The pretty co-ed had no chance at the hands of two brutal murderers. Neither do occupants of an automobile have a chance in a collision with a huge truck. While in some cases accidents are caused by the carelessness of one driver or the other, too many times they are caused by the congestion of the highway.

Traffic on Michigan highways has increased 37% since 1946. Many of our highways were not designed to carry the increased number and size of the vehicles which now use them. Due to lack of funds, construction and maintenance has not kept pace with the increased need.

With the help of the Good Roads Federation, we have developed what we believe to be a good highway program. It is estimated that this program at the cost of an additional $36,000,000 annually for the next fifteen years will bring our highways up to date. This will require an increase of two cents on the tax of gasoline together with an increase on the weight tax of heavy trucks. I have explained time and again our reason for believing that the increase in the gas tax will for the most part be absorbed by the petroleum industry and will not add materially to the price of gasoline.

Together with a number of other House members, I will have introduced the bills by the time you read this. We will be criticized, we know, by those who do not understand. We know too, that the majority of the people want better roads and are willing to pay for them. As in the case of the sponsor of the capital punishment bill we too, by the recent fatal accidents on our highways, are spurred on to immediate action.

Wayne university can be fairly sure of its $3,000,000 request for a new medical science building. Already granted $112,000 in 1950 for ground work, a medical conscious legislature is not expected to demur at the last moment -- budget or not.

Michigan park visitors last year spent $347,000 for hot dogs and soda pop at state parks. Wars and troubled futures never hurt the wiener business.

Question from reader: "If the state's fiscal year deficit was $21 million, why was the average daily deficit only $1000.00?" Answer: The State of Michigan began the past fiscal year (starting July 1, 1949) with a balance of $24,557,130. The state spent $40 million more than it received in revenues. The year-end deficit of $21 million otherwise would have been much greater -- possibly $40,745,493 -- the exact red-ink entry.
